LET US HAVE PEACE

Whatever the Result of the Contest Now Pending at Frankfort.

HAZEL GREEN, KY., Jan. 23, 1900.
Editor HERALD—Dear Sir: A few days since the Louisville Post stated, in substance, that "if the honest people of the state knew the condition of affairs at Frankfort 100,000 men would be marching there with guns and bayonets." Now, fellow-citizens, I see no necessity for a war. Let there be a full and fair investigation of the political controversy.
It can be done without the shedding of a drop of blood, and how much better would it be? Think for a moment of the result of an insurrection in our dear old state; think of the widows and orphans that were made by the late war;
think of the great number of men made cripples for life—all for nothing—simply by listening to the hot, hasty, incendiary talk of jealous, envious, broken down politicians!

We want no war in this country. The Democrats don't want it, the wives and mothers of Wolfe county don't want war. Enough of our sons and brothers are engaged in war across the waters to keep our people in trouble for years to come. Now, who is it that wants war?
It is men who, should war be declared, would be the last to enlist on either side.
I have talked to a great many men in the past few days, and but one or two express a desire for war, and I know they would be the last men in the country to enter the fight should it come.

People, stop, and think for a moment what war would do. Think of the widows and orphans it would necessarily make, and all to satisfy the ambition of hot-headed politicians who expect to profit at the expense of the people. My God, my God, save this nation from a war. Let the authorities settle this matter, and as they settle it let that be the end of it. The Republican papers say some very hard things of the Democrats —of not only those who are at Frankfort engaged in the contest, but all over the state.

Now, fellow-citizens, I believe that there are some honest Democrats, and as many as you will find in any political party. But if there was not a single one in Kentucky, don't force a war on the state and people. Who is it that tells such willful lies? The Lexington Leader of January 19 says there was no idea of a break in the legislative matter. But Dr. A. C. Nickell, of this place, came from Frankfort a week ago, and he says it was talked of then. So someone has said wrong. Now, Democrats, don't be tempted to say or do anything that would lead to the shedding of blood in Kentucky. For God sake, you Republicans, who want to fight and kill, go to the Philippines and help settle the unholy war that is being waged there, or fight one another and let the people alone. Let them stay at home and be at peace.

As to the Democratic party and Bryan and Goebel, they can take care of themselves. The Democrats of this section have hardly decided which they had rather have at the head of the ticket, Bryan or Goebel. There is no use of lying about it as some are doing. The Democrats of the mountains are for Goebel and favor the contest, and when settled are willing to abide the decision let it be for or against them. These are facts notwithstanding the Republicans and these horrid bolters cry out that the Democrats of the mountains are opposed to the contest. Of all the men in Kentucky the Democrats have less use for the men they have heretofore honored who have now deserted them. Governor Simon Boliver Buckner I once thought would be the last man to desert his party, but he has done it. He says the party has no future until the present now in control is wiped out. The party is controlled not by men but by principles, and those principles are as pure as the dews of heaven but for the impurities it got by association with such men as those who bolted in a time of political battles —men who sneaked into the enemy's camp because the Democratic party refused to bow down to them and their gang.

So fellow-citizens don't be mistaken about the danger of a war for some Republicans and the Brown Democrats have a desire for war or anything else to happen rather than see the Democratic party succeed.

J. A. TAUBEE.

HON. ED. C. O'REAR.

Extract from article published in Morgan County Messenger, (Democratic,) January 5, 1898, when the question of dividing Kentucky into two Federal Districts was being agitated:

"As the new district would be principally composed of the counties of Eastern Kentucky, we should have a man in touch with the people of the district, and acquainted with their requirements. We have eminent, eligible and satisfactory material close at hand, in both of the leading parties. And, if the appointment should be filled with a Republican, we know of no higher qualifications for the position than those possessed by our neighbor and Morgan county's former citizen, the Hon. Ed. C.
O'Rear, of Mt. Sterling, Montgomery county. Possessing one of the brightest legal minds in the state, trained and seasoned by a long and successful experience in the practice of law, studious, industrious, conscientious, frank, amiable and honest, he would prove an ornament to the position, and a source of satisfaction and confidence to all having business in the forum over which he would preside.

"True, Judge O'Rear has not, and may not ask for the position in the event the bill passes, but this,
in our humble opinion would only serve to render his appointment the more satisfactory to those interested as it would bring to the place a man eminently fitted for it, and whose dignity will not have suffered from the influence of a political controversy. If we must have a Republican, let him be the best the party has in the shop.
Let it be O'Rear."

Having a Great Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of la grippe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heal up the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily Calumet. For sale by J. T. Day, Druggist.

All who desire to wear nicely laundried shirts, collars, cuffs, etc., should call on Robert Cord, agent for the Lexington Steam Laundry, the work of which is superior to that of any laundry in the state. tf.

Our People Talked About.

Miss Laura Rawlings and Maggie Kash entertained a number of their friends at the beautiful residence of Mr. Floyd Day, on College avenue Tuesday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock. The feature of the evening was the sweet music furnished by Miss Jessie Thompson on the piano, and Prof. E. C. Evans on the violin and mandolin, which was highly enjoyed. At 9:30 refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Minnie Day, Bettie Cope, Jessie Thompson, Laura Rawlings, Maggie Kash, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Day; and Messrs. W.
W. Vaughan, C. J. Sewell, R. J.
Fulkerson, P. E. C. Evans and J. W. Cunningham.

road. He thinks the deposit is extensive and will mine it.

lon, of Campton, is among the

More Corn and Less Hell.

Six murders in Morgan county in the last six weeks! A county that Judge Kinners less than a year ago boasted stood without an equal in the state. The bulldozing spirit seems to have taken hold of our people. Men seem to prefer to fight than to work, and good men feel the necessity of arming themselves in order to protect their person, property and families from bull-dogs in human form. In this dawn of a new year and a new season, the Messenger would most respectfully suggest that all of the people of Morgan dispose of their firearms, or oil them up and lay them away for real emergencies and make a resolution this year to raise more corn and less hell. The warm day in January and February may be occupied in repairing fences, etc., and if we go to work a splendid crop will be harvested in 1900.—Morgan Messenger.

Editor HERALD—Dear Sir:

I see that you have already begun to publish announcements for candidates for county offices to be voted for next November, and note among others that you now have two aspirants for county judge.
And, Mr. Editor, they are both good men, either of whom would make the county a presiding officer that the people could "point to with pride," as you would say.
But, I want to ask, why should we not re-elect the present incumbent, Judge G. T. Center? He has made the county a good moral official and his stand against those who traffic in liquor should commend him to all christian people and good citizens generally. I have talked with several citizens who take the view that I do, and if he will make the race he can certainly get their votes along with that of A SUBSCRIBER.

Three editions have already been printed of Biggle Horse Book, an announcement of which will be as much. Put it in the hands of

Help Your Paper.

To the Democrats of Wolfe county, greeting: For nearly 15 years I have been faithful to the Democratic party—never scratched the ticket nor was absent from the polls—and in all that time I have so conducted THE HERALD as to bring the best results to the party. But the patronage of the paper has not been adequate to its proper support, and but for outside aid I should have been compelled to suspend. It looks like more than a decade of devotion to the Democratic party and its interests and principles deserve some slight reward, and I therefore appeal to the Democrats of Wolfe county to award me the nomination for assessor, and promise that in event of election I will faithfully perform the duties pertaining thereto and endeavor with all my ability to honor the party for honoring me. I am a poor man, deeply in debt, and the emoluments of this office would extricate me from the debt and enable me to make THE HERALD better than ever, and I therefore pray that the party will accord me the position. Hoping which, I remain, yours for Democratic success,

SPENCER COOPER.

With this issue of our paper appears the announcement of W. S. Tutt, who desires to succeed himself as county court clerk, and asks the nomination for that office subject to the will of the Democratic party, his fealty to which forbids that he should seek it through any other source. Silas Tutt is a young man, but in the years since his majority he has worshipped at the shrine of Democracy, and his fidelity to that

party is as sincere as the love of a father to his first born. He has talked for it, worked for its success and voted for its candidates ever since he became of the age that legally granted him the right to stamp the cross under the rooster. His present position is the first one he ever held as an official, and he has made a record of which he is justly proud as in his constituents and fellow county men. Indeed, no man has ever filled the office more acceptably than he, for since he was inducted into it there has never been a complaint of any kind whatever. The records are kept in systematic manner, and he can readily give any one the desired information at a moment's notice. He is affable, courteous, accommodating, always at his post of duty when duty demands. That he is deserving no one can deny, and the Democratic party can make no mistake in giving him the nomination for re-election. Besides deserving the office for his fidelity to the trust, he is a cripple from rheumatism—unable to make a living by manual labor—and should have his claim considered upon that score. Sober, industrious, painstaking and praiseworthy, we believe his claim will meet with just consideration and we therefore commit him to the care of his constituents.

ISAAC COMBS has filled the office of jailor of Wolfe county so satisfactorily during this his first term that his host of friends insist that he shall have it again, to which Ike does not demur, and he therefore announces in this issue for the nomination, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Combs has without doubt made an ideal jailor, and the people generally recognize the fact. No prisoner has ever escaped during his administration, nor has he ever had any trouble with any one confined under his keeping. He has treated them humanely and at the same time maintained a discipline that is commendable in any official holding a similar position. It is generally supposed that a jailor seeks that office more for the emoluments than for the enjoyment of the position, but Ike Combs is today a loser in the game from the fact that he has fed the prisoners on better fare than usually obtains, and has contributed liberally to charities and to the Democratic campaign fund. Thus he is poorer than when he was installed, but he loves his party and his people, and if he has paid out his salary and fees that they might be benefitted, it is only a noble trait in his character that should be applauded. Now he seeks the office for a second term, and hopes to retrench and retrieve that he may at the end of this term play even at least. "Well done, good and faithful servant," aptly applies to his official career, and his friends hope to reward him with a second term for his faithfulness to the party and his fidelity to the trust, and believing the Democratic party will deal justly with him in this matter we leave him in their hands for the present.

EDITORIAL BRIEFS.

A German stock broker in London, who refused to hold a place open for a clerk who volunteered for the Transvaal war, has been set upon and nearly murdered by his British associates. Thus England shows her love of fair play.

Mr. Bryan is certainly entitled to one virtue even in the eyes of his opponents. He has never been afraid to let the country know where he stood on any question; in this, furnishing a great contrast to our jelly-like President.

A reciprocity treaty with Germany would be a very good thing, but none will be negotiated. In fact, it is extremely probable that none of those already negotiated will be ratified. The reciprocity provision in the Dingley bill was made as a concession to public feeling, but was so arranged that it would be hard to treat under it, and harder still to ratify any treaty that might be made.

The rest of the Cabinet is said to be appalled at the frankness of Secretary Gage in sending to congress such incriminating letters. They declare that he lacks political sagacity and that he should have done like the rest of them and forwarded only correspondence that could not injure himself and them.

Mr. Lentz, of Ohio, makes the positive charge that General Grosvenor, of the same state, told him that the Administration had seen to it that the protests against the appointment of Utah polygamists as postmasters, had been destroyed. Gen. Grosvenor is supposed to be the personal mouthpiece of the President.

Poor Mark Hanna! Philadelphia has paid $100,000 for the Republican convention and Pittsburgh has proffered $200,000 to the campaign fund for a speech from McKinley, and yet Mr. Hanna declares that the Republican party is lost unless the trusts will go down in their pockets and contribute freely.

The speech of the venerable Senator Vest in defense of his right to discuss Philippine matters without being called a traitor, and his protests against the efforts of the imperialists to muzzle all who disagree with them, fills a long felt want. Free speech was never needed more than now.

Be it remembered, that the terrible murderous affray in Kentucky recently, was not connected in any way with the election contests, but was entirely a private quarrel.

According to Mark Hanna and John J. Ingalls, U. S. Senators should bear the mark of dignity. They bear a mark all right, but it is more than apt to be the dollar mark.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, Holly Wilson and wife, on Wednesday, January 17, J. Morton Peratt and Miss Rebecca Wilson. Attendants, Mort Wilson and Miss Lillie Havens. Elder Leander Lacy performed the ceremony, after which the bride and groom repaired to the residence of the groom, on the Murphy fork, and at once began housekeeping.
THE HERALD extends congratulations and suggests that the home paper would be a valuable adjunct to a newly married pair.

We received the following beautiful lines from our poet, Sam Wilson, this week from Caney.

THE SONG THAT MOTHER SANG.

My mother used to sing a song
To me and brother Bill, Though years have come and gone since then,
It echoes round me still;
It follows me to foreign lands
Across the ocean wide,
The song I've heard in childhood days
Before poor mother died.
It is to me the grandest tune
That mortal e'er could sing;
No symphony from a harp of gold
Could sweeter music bring,
It touches, O, my better self
While on life's stormy tide,
Before poor mother died.

She sings it now in Heaven,
Above the stars so high,
And angels wait the music down
To brother Bill and I,
On memory's wall 'twill ever cling
Whatever may betide,
Before poor mother died.

SAM WILSON.

J. N. Vaughn, who has been a prominent merchant in Campton for 25 years past, and who is a native of this county, bought a farm in Fayette county last summer, and in December last removed to his new purchase. Mr.
Vaughn is located 4 miles from Lexington, on the Frakfort pike, not far from Steele's Run, and we can say to the people of that section that on parting with Mr.
Vaughn as a citizen, Wolfe county is the loser and Fayette largely the gainer, and when they get to know him they will find him a gentleman of high integrity, a fine business man, and worthy of every confidence; his wife a most estimable lady and his son George an intelligent, manly, bright boy.
There are other children, we believe, but the latter is the only one we know. The Wheelers, the Steeles and other families of that neighborhood should meet Mr. Vaughn and bid him and his family welcome among them. Mr. Vaughn is a Republican in politics, but so conservative as to be a good citizen among consistent Democrats, and we bespeak for him a bright future in his new home.

Pick Up.

A few days ago a H. G. father had a thrilling experience at his heretofore well regulated home. A few mornings since he wanted to get his son up early, and after trying to fetch him by calling him, he proceeded to the room and turned the "kivers" down and gave him a good spanking with his hand. It happened that the hired girl had been given the boy's room the night before, and the old man unwittingly spanked the wrong party. Consternation reigned in the household for a spell, but everything is quiet on the Potomac now.

Great Cures proved by thousands of testimonials show that Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses power to purify, vitalize and enrich the blood.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to be taken with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Dora Conley and Moses
Lacy, both of Morgan county, were married on Thursday at the residence of the bride's parents.
Then they repaired to the home of the groom's parents, Rev. Leander Lacy and wife, where a host of relatives were congregated to extend congratulations after which they all sat down to a sumptuous dinner. It was a royal wedding feast, so our poet says, as he was one of the number present.

Farm Journal is the oldest farm monthly published. But it is not old and moss grown; it is bristling and brimming over with good things. You should know it. Here's a chance. Pay up your subscription to THE HERALD one year ahead, and we will send it nearly five years, the remainder of 1900, and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904; both papers at the price of one.

Rev. E. K. Pike began a protracted meeting at West Liberty on Tuesday night last, in which he is assisted by Revs. Andrew Johnson and Thos. McCoy, the same men who were engaged in the meeting just closed at this place.

Send one dollar to the Frankfort Daily State Democrat and get that paper during the entire session. Full proceedings published each day, and particulars regarding the contests for state offices.

Quite a large concourse of people were assembled at Salem church on Grassy creek to hear the doctrine of the Bible expounded. The meeting opened on Friday night the 12th inst., and closed the following Thursday morning. Rev.
Harland Murphy, of Long Branch; Rev. William Yocum, of head of Grassy; assisted by the Rev. Clint Byrd and Rev. Ben Blankenship, were the able ministers who handled their sermons in an efficient manner. The good results from this meeting were 13 baptisms and four reclaimed. We noticed Mrs.
Jane Long from Hazel Green
among the audience.

I want to let the people who suffer from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved me after a number of other medicines and a doctor had failed. It is the best liniment I have ever known of.—J. A. Dodgen, Alpharetta, Ga. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism by this remedy. One application relieves the pain. For sale by J. T.
Day, Druggist.

NOTICE is hereby given that on January 8, 1900, at the residence of John

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the Union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by J. T. Day, Druggist.

Pending at Frankfort.

HAZEL GREEN, KY., Jan. 23, 1900.
Editor HERALD—Dear Sir: A few
days since the Louisville Post stated,
in substance, that "if the honest people
at Frankfort 100,000 men would be
marching there with guns and bayonets." Now,
investigation of the political controversy.
by listening to the hot, hasty, incendiary
politicians!

It is men who, should war be declared,
would be the last to enlist on either side.

enter the fight should it come.

war. Let the authorities settle this mat-
—of not only those who are at Frank-
the state.

such willful lies? The Lexington Leader of January 19 says there was no idea of a break in the legislative network. But Dr. A. C. Nickell, of this place, came from Frankfort a week ago,
someone has said wrong. Now, Demo-
Republicans, who want to fight and kill,
peace.

and Goebel, they can take care of them-
rather have at the head of the ticket,
Democrats of the mountains are for Go-
ebel and favor the contest, and when set-
tucky the Democrats have less use for
would be the last man to desert his party,
trolled not by men but by principles,
fused to bow down to them and their gang.

about the danger of a war for some Re-
party succeed.

J. A. TAUBEE.

HON. ED. C. O'REAR.

in Morgan County Messenger, (Democratic,) January 5, 1898,
when the question of dividing Ken-
was being agitated:

ties of Eastern Kentucky, we should
have a man in touch with the peo-
our neighbor and Morgan county's
former citizen, the Hon. Ed. C.
O'Rear, of Mt. Sterling, Mont-
over which he would preside.

the more satisfactory to those in-
best the party has in the shop.

tion.—South Chicago Daily Calu-

More Corn and Less Hell.

in the last six weeks! A county
warm day in January and Febru-
splendid crop will be harvested in 1900.—Morgan Messenger.

Editor HERALD—Dear Sir:

voted for next November, and note
two aspirants for county judge.
to with pride," as you would say.
But, I want to ask, why should
who take the view that I do, and
certainly get their votes along

Help Your Paper.

To the Democrats of Wolfe county, greeting: For nearly 15 years I have been faithful to the Democratic party—never scratched the ticket nor was absent from the polls—and in all that time I have so conducted THE HERALD as to bring the best results to the party. But the patronage of the paper has not been adequate to its proper support, and but for outside aid I should have been compelled to suspend. It looks like more than a decade of devotion to the Democratic party and its interests and principles deserve some slight reward, and I therefore appeal to the Democrats of Wolfe county to award me the nomination for assessor, and promise that in event of election I will faithfully perform the duties pertaining thereto and endeavor with all my ability to honor the party for honoring me. I am a poor man, deeply in debt, and the emoluments of this office would extricate me from the debt and enable me to make THE HERALD better than ever, and I therefore pray that the party will accord me the position. Hoping which, I remain, yours for Democratic success,

SPENCER COOPER.

With this issue of our paper appears the announcement of W. S. Tutt, who desires to succeed himself as county court clerk, and asks the nomination for that office subject to the will of the Democratic party, his fealty to which forbids that he should seek it through any other source. Silas Tutt is a young man, but in the years since his majority he has worshipped at the shrine of Democracy, and his fidelity to that

party is as sincere as the love of a father to his first born. He has talked for it, worked for its success and voted for its candidates ever since he became of the age that legally granted him the right to stamp the cross under the rooster. His present position is the first one he ever held as an official, and he has made a record of which he is justly proud as is in his constituents and fellow county men. Indeed, no man has ever filled the office more acceptably than he, for since he was inducted into it there has never been a complaint of any kind whatever. The records are kept in systematic manner, and he can readily give any one the desired information at a moment's notice. He is affable, courteous, accommodating, always at his post of duty when duty demands. That he is deserving no one can deny, and the Democratic party can make no mistake in giving him the nomination for re-election. Besides deserving the office for his fidelity to the trust, he is a cripple from rheumatism—unable to make a living by manual labor—and should have his claim considered upon that score. Sober, industrious, painstaking and praiseworthy, we believe his claim will meet with just consideration and we therefore commit him to the care of his constituents.

ISAAC COMBS has filled the office of jailor of Wolfe county so satisfactorily during this his first term that his host of friends insist that he shall have it again, to which Ike does not demur, and he therefore announces in this issue for the nomination, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Combs has without doubt made an ideal jailor, and the people generally recognize the fact. No prisoner has ever escaped during his administration, nor has he ever had any trouble with any one confined under his keeping. He has treated them humanely and at the same time maintained a discipline that is commendable in any official holding a similar position. It is generally supposed that a jailor seeks that office more for the emoluments than for the enjoyment of the position, but Ike Combs is today a loser in the game from the fact that he has fed the prisoners on better fare than usually obtains, and has contributed liberally to charities and to the Democratic campaign fund. Thus he is poorer than when he was installed, but he loves his party and his people, and if he has paid out his salary and fees that they might be benefitted, it is only a noble trait in his character that should be applauded. Now he seeks the office for a second term, and hopes to retrench and retrieve that he may at the end of this term play even at least. "Well done, good and faithful servant," aptly applies to his official career, and his friends hope to reward him with a second term for his faithfulness to the party and his fidelity to the trust, and believing the Democratic party will deal justly with him in this matter we leave him in their hands for the present.

A German stock broker in London, who refused to hold a place open for a clerk who volunteered for the Transvaal war, has been set upon and nearly murdered by his British associates. Thus England shows her love of fair play.

Mr. Bryan is certainly entitled to one virtue even in the eyes of his opponents. He has never been afraid to let the country know where he stood on any question; in this, furnishing a great contrast to our jelly-like President.

A reciprocity treaty with Germany would be a very good thing, but none will be negotiated. In fact, it is extremely probable that none of those already negotiated will be ratified. The reciprocity provision in the Dingley bill was made as a concession to public feeling, but was so arranged that it would be hard to treat under it, and harder still to ratify any treaty that might be made.

The rest of the Cabinet is said to be appalled at the frankness of Secretary Gage in sending to congress such incriminating letters. They declare that he lacks political sagacity and that he should have done like the rest of them and forwarded only correspondence that could not injure himself and them.

Mr. Lentz, of Ohio, makes the positive charge that General Grosvenor, of the same state, told him that the Administration had seen to it that the protests against the appointment of Utah polygamists as postmasters, had been destroyed. Gen. Grosvenor is supposed to be the personal mouthpiece of the President.

Poor Mark Hanna! Philadelphia has paid $100,000 for the Republican convention and Pittsburgh has proffered $200,000 to the campaign fund for a speech from McKinley, and yet Mr. Hanna declares that the Republican party is lost unless the trusts will go down in their pockets and contribute freely.

The speech of the venerable Senator Vest in defense of his right to discuss Philippine matters without being called a traitor, and his protests against the efforts of the imperialists to muzzle all who disagree with them, fills a long felt want. Free speech was never needed more than now.

Be it remembered, that the terrible murderous affray in Kentucky recently, was not connected in any way with the election contests, but was entirely a private quarrel.

According to Mark Hanna and John J. Ingalls, U. S. Senators should bear the mark of dignity. They bear a mark all right, but it is more than apt to be the dollar mark.

good health. Hood's Sarsaparilla returned Saturday from Frankfort where they have been as witnesses in the state ticket contest.

was in our town Sunday night and Monday in the interest of the County Bible Depository.

The American Book Company, of Chicago, will accept thanks of ant visit to Toliver, so our poet informs us.

young townsman, W. H. Kash, is 18, W. M. Trimble and Miss En-ma Maloney, Rev. E. K. Pike officiating.

quire their teeth plugged or who wish teeth made.

charged with the murder of Wood Hall, which was tried in the Wolfe circuit court last week, the jury disagreed and was discharged. It stood 11 for conviction and one for acquittal.

Married, at the residence of the

Leander Lacy performed the cere-
the groom, on the Murphy fork,
and at once began housekeeping.
to a newly married pair.

from our poet, Sam Wilson, this week from Caney.

THE SONG THAT MOTHER SANG.

To me and brother Bill,
Though years have come and gone since
then,
It echoes round me still;
It follows me to foreign lands
Across the ocean wide,
Before poor mother died.
It is to me the grandest tune
That mortal e'er could sing;
Could sweeter music bring,
It touches, O, my better self
While on life's stormy tide,
Before poor mother died.

She sings it now in Heaven,
Above the stars so high,
To brother Bill and I,
On memory's wall 'twill ever cling
Whatever may betide,
Before poor mother died.

SAM WILSON.

J. N. Vaughn, who has been a
native of this county, bought a
farm in Fayette county last sum-
moved to his new purchase. Mr.
Vaughn is located 4 miles from
Lexington, on the Frakfort pike,
not far from Steele's Run, and we
can say to the people of that section that on parting with Mr.
Vaughn as a citizen, Wolfe county
know him they will find him a
confidence; his wife a most esti-
intelligent, manly, bright boy.
There are other children, we be-
and other families of that neighbor-
Republican in politics, but so con-
among consistent Democrats, and
in his new home.

Pick Up.

trying to fetch him by calling him,
now.

Great Cures proved by thousands
saparilla possesses power to purify,
vitalize and enrich the blood.

Lacy, both of Morgan county,
residence of the bride's parents.
one of the number present.

a chance. Pay up your subscrip-
1904; both papers at the price of
one.

Rev. E. K. Pike began a protracted meeting at West Liberty
son and Thos. McCoy, the same
ing just closed at this place.

on Grassy creek to hear the doc-
lowing Thursday morning. Rev.
Harland Murphy, of Long Branch;
Rev. William Yocum, of head of
Byrd and Rev. Ben Blankenship,
were the able ministers who han-
four reclaimed. We noticed Mrs.
among the audience.

suffer from rheumatism and sci-
had failed. It is the best liniment
this remedy. One application relieves the pain. For sale by J. T.
Day, Druggist.
